

GOOSEPOINTE Skull-n-Crossword Clues

Factoid: Did you know that pirate ships have sailed into Tillamook Bay? Goose Pointe appears on maps over 100 years old. Pirates could have walked the same beach now lining the waterfront at Goose Pointe!

ACROSS

- 1) “___” leg
- 7) Common coastal birds (pl)
- 15) Sailors windless solution
- 23) Cartographers folly
- 26) Pirates 401K
- 39) Three ling two short three long
- 42) Gets the “shot” out
- 57) Inlet by the sea
- 60) Mariners derisive term for people who prefer terra firma
- 76) Lands held in public trust do not have just one
- 86) Name of the Chief of the Tillamook Indians, also a local river

DOWN

- 1) Depp plays a great one
- 4) Explorer pals, others “trailed” along
- 5) Steamed bivalve
- 22) Frasier bird
- 25) From pillar to “___”
- 28) Old fashioned exclamation of surprise
- 50) Local fish, think pink
- 54) You will want two of these
- 57) Envidable destination
- 62) Cat-o-”___”-tails
- 66) Ships ringer
- 75) Opposite of down(s)

This crossword puzzle is the last step in a multi-level game of intrigue.

Last step: Bring your completed puzzle to Hidden Treasures Antiques in Garibaldi for your special prize. One prize per person, limited to the first 25 people bringing in completed puzzles in original ink. What is the prize? You get a bag of chocolate doubloons AND a 10% discount on one item purchased before Thanksgiving 2011 at Hidden Treasures Antiques, 230 Garibaldi Avenue, Garibaldi.

Questions? Email ptzielinski@prunw.com or call the Netarts Office at 503-842-3046.

This game is presented by Pam Zielinski, Broker, Prudential NW Properties, and Hidden Treasures Antiques, for the purpose of calling attention to the beautiful new neighborhood at Goose Pointe, on Tillamook Bay, offering building lots and charming, affordable new cottages by the water.